“Koš” salash promotes tourism and nurtures tradition. We organize ephemeral outings with various contents aimed at children of all ages. Having breakfast by the fire, visiting an old museum, horseshoe pitching, sack racing and tug of war familiarize your children with very old forms of entertainment. Take a stroll to the adjacent salash, ride a horse or carriage, visit a vintage workshop and experience a former way of life that “Koš” salash represents.

This hospitality facility is located between Bački Petrovac and Kulpina. "Salašarska kuća", with its two-level restaurant, holds the central position. Nearby is a facility with domestic animals. This estate also has three suites.
The restaurant is in an old house of unusual architecture, appealingly decorated with an indoor section and a balcony that can receive up to 100 visitors. The Danube is nearby, as well as the new Oaza MB motel with a fish pond. Studnja has its own front parking lot.

This restaurant is also settled an older Vojvodinian house of specific architecture. Adjacent to the Dugerski family castle, now an Agricultural museum in Kulpin, the Lipa restaurant is beautifully decorated, and can receive up to 80 guests. Bus parking is also available.

Our guests shall feel very pleasant in this ambience, as well as enjoy a diverse and affordable choice of fish specialties. You can fish at nearby lake or take a walk in the woods which is over fifty years old. There are also sports fields and a big summer stage where the local festivities are organized. Oaza MB can receive up to 130 visitors.

This is a Slovakian ethno house, built in a Slovakian national style. We also offer 6 rooms for lodging. The restaurant owners hold gastronomic seminars. They have completely devoted themselves to culinary art, in keeping and catering services, offering their guests an encompassing service of lodging and dining under one roof.

A fully preserved merchants house, originating from the 19th century, of typical Vojvodinian architecture. The furniture and other household items poses an element of the Slovakian folklore. Inside 200 square meters you can see a craft workshop, dining room, souvenir shop, and a small museum collection of dishes, dresses and tools.

The windmill, made into a restaurant and pizzeria, was built at the end of the 19th century. Since 1991, it has been working under the name of Don Quijote. The restaurant is built two levels, it also has a summer garden and its own parking. The menu offers traditional Vojvodinian dishes and other specialties. The restaurant can receive 75 visitors.
The Ostrvo restaurant, as a part of Bela Crkva auto camp, is located at 1500 square meters of cultivated terrain. It has been working for 10 years, using the space of a former aero club. Numerous manifestations and events are held here. The restaurant can receive 250 guests. An enclosed parking space is also available.

Bela Crkva

Looking up to the European high society of the time, a land ed gentleman Bogdan Dunderski (1862-1943), decided to build his own castle! The construction four years, from 1919 to 1923. It was transformed into a hotel during the 1980s. Today, it has 40 beds and the name Fantast comes from a famous race horse from 1930. The castle is surrounded by a beautiful park.

Bela Crkva

This is an ideal place for those who want to taste fish specialties made from experience and lasting tradition. The indoor section can receive 50 guests with additional 100 on the balcony overlooking the Danube.

BEOČIN

On the slopes of Fruška gora, on the road to Beočin monastery you will find this creatively decorated restaurant. The meals are made traditionally, and are considered the finest specialties of our local cuisine. The indoor section can receive 80 guests, with additional 60 in the garden.

BEOČIN

Named after an ancient Roman village Banoštorn Malata Bononia. We own 7 acres of vineyards on the slopes of Fruška gora, where we raise various vine sorts, such as the Italian Riesling, Župljanka, Chardonnay, Merlot, Franconia, Cabernet sauvignon and Muscat Hamburg. The winery produces 40 000 liters per vintage. Located about 30 kilometers from Novi Sad.

WINERY BONONIA

The Urošević family has been in the wine growing business for over a century. On the surface of 4 acres they grow the Italian and Rhine Riesling from white grapes, with Cabernet Franc and Merlot from dark grapes. Yearly, they make more than 20000 liters of wine. The Urošević winery also makes the Bermet and can receive a substantial number of tourists since recently.

WINERY UROŠEVIĆ
The Salaksija winery is next to the medieval Rakovica monastery, about 12 kilometers from Novi Sad. Established in 2009, on 700 square meter interior the visitors can find a tasting room, wine shop and a beautiful garden surrounded by woods. Their wine list offers the Italina and Rhine Riesling, Chardon- nay, Cabernet Sauvignon, Pinot Noir, Salaxia Rose and other characteristic blends.

The Kuzmanović family stands for one of the most esteemed and biggest vinterers in this part of Srem. The rare Neoplanta grape sort is grown in this family’s vineyards.

The Stojković family’s wine cellar dates back to 1912. They make up to 10,000 liters of finest vine, as well as 1000 liters of Bermet. The grapes grown at 3 acres of vineyards give the Italian Riesling and Chardonnay from white grapes, with Cabernet Sauvignon and Vranac coming from dark grapes. Since recently, the Stojković family can receive up to 30 people for a wine tasting.

This is the city tavern suitable for business meetings, seminars, trainings and other events. It has six rooms (single-bedded, double-bedded and triple-bedded) with a total of 18 beds. Within the facility, there are two restaurants and an aperitif bar which can receive up to 250 visitors.

The club is equipped to accommodate over 30 guests in double-bedded rooms. There are two dining rooms, fireplace hall, garden, wine cellar and a barbecue- all at your disposal. Upon your request, we can organize different programs, such as nautical, recreational, religious and vinous.

Arthur Lederer began the construction of this magnificent cellar back in 1903. Today, it is considered as one of the finest underground cellar at the Balkans. One of many attractions is a dish which can hold 67,000 liters of wine. The cellar kept its traditional look, as well as the spirit of the past, guarding all the secrets of oak barrels and seven chilly wine streets.

Beside the specialties of the Slovakian cuisine, the comfortable atmosphere is contributed by an orchestra playing traditional Slovakian music. The restaurant is named after a novel by the great Slovakian writer František Heck.
With an antique interior, a unique position and appearance, this restaurant traditionally attracts numerous guests. More and more tourists and tourist groups tend to visit it just so they could feel the spirit of the past, and somewhat forgotten times. You shall enjoy the culinary specialties which will bring you back to childhood.

Located in Southern Banat, not far from Debeljača village. The artificial lakes are meant for sport fishing and have an easy access to the fishing spots. The ambiance will suit all nature lovers. As a part of the complex is a charda, spacious parking and accommodating bungalows.

A monk lived here, a long time ago. This is a Slovakian national house, which represents the life of the Slovaks at Padina in the 19th century. By announcing your arrival you can have a traditional Slovakian breakfast. The house is not just an exhibit space; it is also used for the meetings of the Women’s association and smaller celebrations during winter.

While visiting this museum you will have an overwhelming feeling of going back in time. This house is 170 years old; it was bought and restored by Pave Petraš- a retired innkeeper. He was always interested in antiquities, therefore he collected and restored old furniture, equipment and clothes of the ancestors from Padina.

The association has 138 beds in double-bedded rooms, 26 beds in a hostel and 16 categorized households. We have a three-star rating, therefore Škorenovac village has entered the top 14 most active villages of Vojvodina. Numerous international tourists spent over 6000 nights here in 2011.

This facility was built in 1858. Although renovated, it has kept the spirit and atmosphere of past times. The restaurant offers traditional Vojvodinian dishes, and has a wine cellar in the yard where you can have a tasting. The indoor section can receive 50 guests with an additional 20 in the garden during summer. Suits are also available!

VRŠAC
In a very pleasant ambiance, in two tasting halls, “Kratoc” wine cellar can receive up to 80 guests. Here you will taste Todorovo wine - a mixture of Franc, Merlot, and Black Burgundy. You can also taste “Sveti Georgije” wine from the Kreacer sort, as well as Schiller.

This cellar makes Kreacer, Rein Riesling, White Burgundy, and Merlot. Visitors will be given an opportunity to see the wine cellar and taste wine. It can receive up to 25 guests.

A family cellar, “Selecta” is located in gudurica, in a traditional neighbourhood house over 150 years old. On 1000 square meters of this estate is an apartment, sleeping room, 4 cellars, and a wine tasting hall for 43 guests.

This cellar dates back to the 19th century, it runs its business as a part of the “Vršački vinogradi” company. For organized groups we hold a presentation and a wine tasting.

Also a part of “Vršački vinogradi” company. It holds presentations and wine tastings for organized groups.

One of our halls was built in the style of the log cabin, and the other is a wine hall with furniture made from barrels. The menu has grilled specialties and wines from Vršac.
This ethno village is in Stajićevo. It offers a multitude of activities. We single out the small pony farm, horse farm, and a playground. The restaurant has 70 seats and rooms decorated in typical Banatian ethno style. It has its own parking lot.
