FOUR SEASONS OF VOJVODINA

Here in our region, as anywhere else (and everywhere)
There are mostly four seasons
Each one quite fitting
To try a different tour.
If curiosity or shortage of time
Prevent you from following our advice to the letter
It is better to do at least something than nothing
So do embark on an adventure disregarding the proposed order of stops.

Spring is a time of reawakening and renewed optimism. The time to return into shape. Water sports (sailing, kayaking, canoeing, boating, fishing...), “dry” sports (cycling, horseback riding, hunting...), air sports (paragliding). And bird watching too.

Next is summer. It’s getting warmer. Vacation time. One gets a bit lazy. Looks for beaches on river banks, or lakes. One can swim too if not too lazy. Then go to csarda and listen to tamburica, enjoying some fish specialties.

Then autumn arrives. Leaving me enthralled. The temperature is mild at first and then drops significantly. A dress rehearsal for the winter. Grape harvesting is over. It’s time for wine tourism (wine roads, wine events, and wine tastings). And close to the vineyards there are the monasteries.

Winter comes at the end. Everything seems to stop. Except for the traditional farm households.

Be it spring, summer, fall or winter - there are always cultural offerings here. Festivals, events, cultural heritage - cultural tourism. Likewise, here, at the bottom of the Pannonian Sea, ecology cared for. Education thirsty tourists tread the marked eco trails. Eco tourism.

For each Vojvodina season, we have prepared for you a special tour for tourist. We stand behind our proposals. We are to some extent obligated to do that. But that doesn’t mean it is the only way to go. There is no need to wrestle with the decision, you decide where to go. Mix the cards (or tourist maps) as you please and race across the plains in treasure hunt. Let emotions mix as the seasons tend to do more and more.
VOJVODINA SPRING RHAPSODY

Listen to what the spring cheerfully chirps,
Get some active rest in Vojvodina.

A prominent cultural expert here once said that locked shutters on a quiet Sunday afternoon in Vojvodina do not necessarily indicate leisure within the house. With our spring tour, we will show you that the traditionally peaceful plain of Vojvodina has its dynamic side as well.

On the wide plain between the great European rivers, the Danube, Sava and Tisza, there are over twenty protected areas, including the first national park in Serbia - Fruska Gora. Eight of the ten Ramsar regions of Serbia are part of Vojvodina. Over two hundred protected bird species still fly over Srem, Banat and Bačka.

The Danube bank beaches of Apatin, Bačka Palanka and Novi Sad offer a combination of swimming, boating and, of course, sunbathing.

Crowned heads, political elites and diplomatic corps have always enjoyed the hunting grounds in Vojvodina. Today, many tourists hunt here. Also, the tradition of equestrian culture in these areas has been present for hundreds of years.

There are not as many cyclists anywhere in Serbia as in our province. By yourself, on two wheels, along marked trails, you will create a tour, get to know the traditions, nature and the locals. For some additional excitement, there is paragliding (which takes off in spring) in Vrsac, Novi Sad or Subotica.

Bačka Palanka

On the left bank of the Danube, across from the ancient city of Ilok, lies Bačka Palanka. The municipality include the settlements of Obrovac, Karadjordjevo, Tovarisevo, Mladenovo, Celarevo, Gajdobra, Nova Gajdobra, Silbas, Parage, Despotovo, Pivnice and two places in Srem, Nestin and Vizic. In the same territory there are Bagremar and Karadjordjevo Nature Reserves, Tikvara Nature Park, a smaller part of the Fruska Gora National Park and the „Celarevo Castle Park“ Nature Monument.

In the eleventh century, there lived a beautiful Anka, and when she was killed everyone shouted: Pala Anka! (Anka has fallen!) A legend. But the Palanka Guinness Record Cauldron, it’s a reality checked.
In Celarevo stands a castle bought in 1882 by Count Dundjerski to open the first brewery in Serbia. The story of the love of Lenka Dundjerski and Laza Kostic which was not to be is also linked to the castle. Adjacent to the castle is the Beer Museum, with the first samples of Serbian beer from the 19th century.

The Karadjordjevo Stud Farm, built in 1880, housed in the Nature Reserve of the same name, hides a museum that inherits artifacts of a bygone era when the stud farm was in full splendor.

After all, the Srem House Museum in Nestin authentically represents the life of the 18th-century Vojvodina Serbs.

KIKINDA

Right next to the Romanian, and not far from the Hungarian border, in northern Banat, lies the town of Kikinda. General Drapsin Street, with four hundred American nettle trees, silver ash, mulberry and linden trees, has been named one of the most beautiful streets in the world. Great Kikinda Park, popular Blandas, and Old Lake are no less beautiful. Many an Eurasian eagle-owl will stare at you from the crowns of Kikinda trees. Because of this, they also call Kikinda the Owl City.

The skeleton of the mammoth Kika, half a million years old, is housed in the National Museum. The Terra Gallery houses over a thousand terracotta sculptures. This city is the keeper of one of the two remaining horse powered dry mills in Europe. This mill driven by horses is called Suvaca. The oldest academic culture and art society of the entire Serbian nation, Gusle, founded in 1876, is still active. The first music magazine of the Serbs titled Gudalo (Bow) was published in 1887 in this city.
Ludaja Days are held every year in October in Kikinda. The village of Mokrin, Kikinda municipality, is known for two world championships: Geese competition, and Easter egg tapping. The village is also known for two renaissance Vojvodinians, Mika Antic and Rasa Popov.

Kikinda – Petra Drapsina Street – one of the most beautiful streets in the world
The history of the largest city in the Serbian part of Banat goes back to the year 1326, when it is mentioned as Beckerek. Afterwards it was called Petrovgrad. Today it is Zrenjanin.

Come visit it (do not pass it by). Visit the City Hall, Theater, Roman Catholic Cathedral, the Academy of Commerce, the Reformation Church, the Palace of Finance, the National Museum, the Historical Archives, the Cultural Center ... The National Theater building is the oldest theater building in Serbia. In this city with a total of ten bridges, of different styles and architectural features, there are three lakes, formed by the intersection of the Begej River meanders.

The area of Ecka, with its fish farm, ethno village Belo Blato and citadel, give a special tourist appeal to the Zrenjanin municipality, and the citadel opening saw the nine-year-old
Franz Liszt perform. Photo safaris, bird watching and related tourist activities take place within the special nature reserve of Stari Begej - Carska bara.

Finally, in Melenci, on the shore of the salt lake of the same name, there is the Rusanda Spa. Send Mom and Dad to be treated in Rusanda mud.

Temperatures are getting high. The swimming season is beginning, so it is fitting to introduce you to the most beautiful beaches of our Province. Along the beaches there are csarda restaurants. We will tour Stara Pazova, Sremski Karlovci, Sombor and Novi Bečej municipalities.

For centuries, the Danube bound folk have used csarda restaurants as meeting places, places to socialize, make business arrangements, organize celebrations ... The word csarda in Persian means four pillars. Today, the term is used only in Hungarian, Serbian and Croatian. The csarda’s special gastronomic scent of the „good old days” extends from Bački Monoštor to the mouth of the Sava River into the Danube near the capital.

In the csarda restaurants, fish is prepared on the grill, fried in oil or fat, baked in the oven ... The fish most often served at the tables of Vojvodina is carp, perch, catfish, pike, silver carp, common bream, sterlet and tench. In the cauldron, in front of the guests, fish stew is cooked and is usually served with homemade noodles. After fish, the second highest place on the csarda delicatessen list is reserved for grilled meats, pies, and gibanica, a traditional pastry dish. And all this without wine is harder to eat. Rhine Riesling, Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Traminac or Ausbruch, the choice is yours.
STARA PAZOWA

The old Slavs called the Roman military border plateau between the two great rivers Danube and the Sava – the armpit (pazuh). Pazova was mentioned at the end of the 15th century, in the 18th century the area was settled by the guardians of the Hungarian border against the Turkish invasions.

Along the Danube, which extends past the Belegis, there are several river islands that are true camper and fishing Eldorado. “Velika ada” is popular for its attractive beach, while “Mala ada” is a boat dock and a camping paradise.

The baroque town of Sremski Karlovci, on the slopes of Fruška Gora, inherits the centuries-old history of our people from these regions. This is illustrated by the Cathedral Church, the Magistrate, the Patriarchal Palace ... Legend has it that anyone who drinks from the „Four Lions“ fountain on the main square will one day return to Karlovci. And not only return but to get married there. For the first time in the history of world diplomacy, round table was used at the Peace Chapel. Karlovci gymnasium, founded in 1791, is the oldest Serbian gymnasium.

When we say the Maldives, and Monkey Island we think of Karlovci Island that appears at a low water level exactly across from Sremski Karlovci. This is where the Karlovci people make their final preparations for seaside vacations.

More than forty songs and poems have been dedicated to the City of Sombor. The anthem of the Republic of Serbia „God of Justice“ was born in Sombor as was the most beautiful Serbian poem „Santa Maria della Salute“. In front of the house in the city center where he lived, Laza Kostic still sits on the bench with his head and hair. In bronze.

The greenest city of the entire region still sees the old horse carriages on the streets, going past the City Museum, the Serbian Reading Room, the neo-classicist Town Hall, the Milan Konjovic Gallery, the Church of the Holy Trinity, St. John the Forerunner and the Carmelites. The county building preserves the artwork „The Battle of Senta“ by Ferencz Eisenhut, the largest oil on canvas in Serbia. Not far away is the northernmost monastery in Serbia – of the Saint Archdeacon Stevan.

Backi Monostor is located in the heart of „Gornje Podunavlje“ Special Nature Reserve. And it is surrounded with the Danube distributary, the Danube-Tisa-Danube channel and the Grand Bačka channel. That is why they call it the „village on the seven Danubes“, because it is only possible to reach it by one of the bridges. It is populated by ethnic communities of Croats, Hungarians, Germans and Serbs.
Tourists are offered a boat or carriage ride, visit to ethno houses, taking part in music or folklore workshops as well as enjoying the diversity of wildlife and birdlife.

NOVI BEČJ

When you put your finger on the map right in the center of Vojvodina, under the finger it says - Novi Bečej. It is the only Tisa town whose city center is right on the river. The municipality of the same name is composed of Novo Miloševo, Kumane and Bocar as well. The term „bec“ refers to the land owned, but also in this area, the Becsei landowner family owned the property.

In the territory of Novi Bečej municipality, near the Pearl Island (Biserno ostrvo) there is a part of the “Stara Tisa” Nature Park. This longest Tisa meander in Vojvodina is home to rare birds and plants. It has been put under the protection to preserve the largest fluvial lake in our country.

At the beginning of this century, one of the last representative Pannonian salt marshes and wild pastures - Slano Kopovo was proclaimed, by the Ramsar Convention, a globally significant aquatic habitat. It is one of Europe’s most distinctive bird habitats.
Upstream at the first kilometer from the center of Novi Becej, the remains of the ‘Stari grad’ fortress have been resisting to the passage of time for centuries. Lazar Dundjerski lost the Sokolac castle playing cards. An obnoxious opponent offered him a return of the property if he hit an apple on his wife’s head. Lazar, of course, reclaimed the property.

The only museum of old tractors and steam engines in the Balkans is located in Novo Milosevo. In Novo Milosevo there is the Kotarka Museum, the homeland museum of Novo Milosevo, and of the whole Banat. In Milosevo, you must see the Glavas House, a museum in honor of a great national benefactor.

THE SOUL OF VOJVODINA’S AUTMN

Autumn invites to the wine routes. As the autumn days go by, grape harvests are under way. Pick, select, and send to the winery.

The wine route leads us through Deliblato Sands to the town of Vrsac. Then turn to Mt. Fruska Gora. We know that wine is the drink of the gods. Again, if you overdo it, repentance is inevitable. So there are no wine routes without monasteries.

The Banat region and Mt. Fruska Gora wines are well-known all over the world. The Greek word ‘monasterion’ means - alone. People who, for the sake of higher Christian ideals, have taken refuge from the world live in monasteries. Monks.

Mt. Fruska Gora, ’the Serbian Athos’, is a very special cultural and historical entity. Its monasteries are a combination of Byzantine and Baroque style.

The remaining monasteries of Vojvodina that deserve the presence of a curious tourist are: The Baroque Bodjani near Bac, the Mesic monastery at the foot of the Vrsac Mountains, the Malo Srediste monastery in Malo Srediste and the Kovilj Monastery, one of the male monasteries with the highest population in the entire Serbian Orthodox Church.
VRŠAC

On the edge of the Pannonian Plain, on the border with Romania, near the Deliblato Sands, at the foot of the Vrsac Mountains lies one of the oldest Banat cities. Its name is Vrsac.

The Bishop’s Palace, Old Pharmacy, Sterija’s House, Holy Cross Chapel, Cathedral dedicated to St. Gerhard, six museums...

The city of the playwright Jovan Sterija Popovic, painter Paja Jovanovic, Bishop Sakabenta, poet Vasko Popa, war hero Zarko Zrenjanin...

The 15th-century Vrsac Tower, located on the Vrsacki breg hill, offers a magnificent view of the city. A city where winds blow for more than 200 days a year, generating healing air.

The landscape is widely known for growing vines and producing quality wines.

The Mesic Women’s Monastery is one of the most important monasteries in the entire Banat. It dates from the 15th century and is probably a legacy of the Brankovic family. Its heritage is miraculous Attica icon known as the Virgin Axion Esti.

Mt. Fruska Gora

The oldest national park in Serbia, Fruska Gora, is characterized by a wealth of flora and fauna. Forest landscapes, clearings, thermal springs, lakes and waterfalls are the basis for organized hiking, cyclotourism, hunting, fishing, sightseeing of rare bird species, as well as teaching in nature and health tourism. And finally, wine tourism. The products of the Fruska Gora vineyards have been consumed from the Viennese court to English pubs and beyond. And they still are.Mt. Fruska Gora is privileged as a location of a large number of monasteries, which testify to the turbulent history, the intertwining of different cultures and the importance that this part of Serbia had in the past. For centuries, they have passed on the experience of times past, standing proudly as patrons of the cultural and historical heritage of these areas.

LAKES

There are as many as three lakes in the territory of the municipality of Irig which are used for sports, recreation and relaxation. (Medjes, Dobrodol, Borkovac). Recreational fishing on all three lakes is permitted. Lake Medjes, with its landscaped shoreline, showers and bar, serves as a bathing spot in the summer.

HIKING TO THE VRDNIK TOWER

On the hill before entering Vrdnik, there is the Vrdnik Tower. Upon arrival from the direction of Novi Sad to this town of Fruska Gora, it is almost impossible not to notice this striking medieval structure. The tower and the walls are actually the remains of a larger fortification very significant for the history of the whole area. It was built on an elevation, which was used for military purposes in Roman times.

The narrow trail on steep slope, called „Health Trail“, leads to the fort itself. After a ten-minute climb, you reach the very top of the hill, where you can enjoy fantastic views.

PICNIC SPOTS ON MT. FRUSKA GORA

There are wonderful picnic areas in Mt. Fruska Gora near the settlements of the municipality of Irig: Iriski Venac, Zmajevac, Brankovac and many others, which provide visitors with ideal conditions for rest and recreation.

WINTER AT TRADITIONAL FARMS

Do not fear the winter
The grange farms sing

The winter is here. The cellar are full. Time to get to know the grange farms. The Serbian word for grange farm “salas” (from Hungarian “Szallas”), in Vojvodina and Hungary, refers to the farm life in these areas of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, when work was done further outside the villages, in the field. The grange farm was both a home and workplace, a picnic area and a place to rest. The central, elbow shaped house was surrounded by ancillary facilities, such as a house for service and workers, barns, stables and utility rooms. Most were in the vicinity of Subotica, Sombor, Cenej near Novi Sad, and there were also some in the Banat and even Srem region.

Farmers, a special type of men, knew how to rejoice, celebrate and welcome guests. Especially in the coldest seasons, when the works are on hold.

Nowadays, when everything is on the market, even the ‘good old days’, salas are gaining a new (and not so bad) dimension – they are becoming an indispensable factor in tourist supply and demand. The first to come to mind are these grange farms: Majkin, Jelen and Djordjevic on Palic, Rokin in Hajdukovo, Brkin in Cenej, Volic, Mitin and 137, Cvejin in Begec, Dida Hornjakov and Nas salas in Gradina near Sombor, Perkov in Neradin, Stojsic in Beska...

Tourists visiting the Vojvodina grange farms will enjoy the taste of festive, Sunday, Bačka lunches, pasta with potatoes and poppy seeds, potato pie, pepper stews, roast, plum dumplings, strudel...
When you visit the Cenej farms, it is a pity not to stop by the nearby large town known as Novi Sad.

Ideally positioned along a larger river and a smaller mountain, this plain land city will welcome you, as one of tens of thousands of other visitors throughout the year. Novi Sad is today the second largest city in Serbia and was actually created by the nearby Petrovaradin Fortress, in whose shadow, a few centuries ago, it was born.

From its bastions, the view of the city is the most complete and beautiful. Each summer the fort gives its unique scenery to the EXIT music festival, which is certainly the most recognizable brand of the city.

From its epicenter, the streets of Zmaj Jovina and Dunavska, Novi Sad spreads “all over”, through old sumptuous facades and temples of a dozen of confessions, to huge office buildings, all the way to the apartment blocks of recent dates, on the outskirts.
And young Albert Einstein was riding his bike on the streets at the time when he was a son-in-law of a Novi Sad family.

As the icing on the cake, Novi Sad has recently been honored with two prestigious titles. These are the European Youth Capital OPENS 2019 and the European Capital of Culture EPK 2021, and an easy, casual walk through its streets, will suffice to convince you that both titles are celebrated already.

The Petrovaradin Fortress

The Petrovaradin Fortress, a symbol of the city, or as it is called, the Gibraltar on the Danube, was built on the right bank of the Danube from 1692 to 1780, following the system of the French engineer Marquis Sebastien de Vauban. It is a unique fortification structure of the time in Europe.

SUBOTICA

A whirlwind of European and Balkan cultural influences gave birth to the city of Subotica, as early as the Middle Ages. Atypical combinations of colors versus greyness, rampant, rounded, undulating forms on the City Hall, the Reichl Palace, the synagogue and other buildings mark this town as an authentic European jewel of the Secession.

Wine lovers rush to Subotica. The reason: sand wines, famous regionally for the harmony of taste, aroma and softness.

Why is Subotica (with its surroundings) called a festival center? You will find the answers at the Palic international Festival of European Film, the International Festival of Children’s Theaters, the 100-year-old Duzijanca, the Dead Lake Horror and Wine Festival, music festivals aimed at younger audiences and many other cultural, sports and entertainment events.

The village of Palic with a lake is located eight kilometers east of Subotica. Along with Karlovy Vary and Opatija, the favorite destination of the former K und K monarchy nobility. Unusual buildings, lavish parks, a zoo, old-fashioned hotels and villas, beaches and promenades make Palic hard to forget.

In the surrounding area you will also come across the Ludasko Lake Special Nature Reserve, a transit oasis of flocks of birds en route from the Norwegian fjords to the Nile River. It is one of the world’s most important wetland ecosystems.
